

STATIONS
2 OF THE CROSS

Foreword

Is not the Way of the Cross the way of every person's life?
Doesn't every life have suffering, falls, hurts, rejections, condemnations, death, burial... and resurrection?

It has been a Catholic tradition through the centuries to meditate on the Way of the Cross, so that it becomes our way of life.

Mary, the Mother of Jesus, made that first way of the cross.
These stations, called Mary's Way of the Cross, attempt to present that viewpoint. In these stations we see through Mary's eyes what Jesus was going through on the way of Calvary. Then we try to make practical applications to our lives.

These stations and these words are not the heart of the matter;
the heart of the matter is to go deeper and deeper into the sufferings of Christ, so that we might come out of this spiritual journey with an appreciation of what Christ did for us, and a deeper love for him and for our brothers and sisters.

"We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you, because by your holy cross you have redeemed the
world."

Rev Andrew Costello, C.Ss.R.

FIRST STATION JESUS IS CONDEMNED TO DIE

“We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have redeemed the
world.”

It was early Friday morning when I saw my son.
That was the first glimpse I had of him since they took him away.

His bruised and bleeding skin
send a sword of pain deep into my heart and tears down my cheeks.

Then Pilate from his chair of judgment,
asked he crowd why they wanted my son executed.
All around me they shouted.

“Crucify him!”

I wanted to plead with them to stop,
but I knew this had to be.
So I stood by and cried silently.

Lord Jesus,
it is hard for me to imagine
the anguish your mother felt at your condemnation.
But what about today, when I hold a grudge...?

“Crucify him!”

“When I judge others...”

“Crucify him!”

Doesn't this bring tears of anguish to both you and your mother?

Forgive me, Jesus.

SECOND STATION JESUS TAKES HIS CROSS

“We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have redeemed the
world.”

Regaining a little strength, I walked with the crowds to the entrance of the square.

A door flew open

and my son stumbled out, the guards laughing behind him.

Two men dragged over a heavy wooden cross
and dropped it on his shoulders.

Then they shoved him down the road.

My pain for him was unbearable.

I wanted to take the cross from him and carry it myself.

But I knew this had to be so I walked on silently.

Lord Jesus, I beg you to forgive me for the many times I have added more weight to your

by closing my eyes to the pain and loneliness of my neighbour.

Forgive me for gossiping about others

and for always trying to find excuses

to avoid certain people who wish to talk with me.

Help me to like Mary,

always seeking to lighten the crosses of others.

Forgive me, Jesus.

THIRD STATION JESUS FALLS THE FIRST TIME

“We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have redeemed the
world.”

I followed close behind my son as he stumbled toward Calvary.
Nothing had ever hurt me more than to see him in such pain.
I saw the cross digging into his shoulders.
My heart dropped when I saw him fall face to the ground,
the heavy cross landing squarely on his back.
For a moment I thought my beloved son was dead.
Now, my whole body began to tremble.
Then the guards kicked him.
He rose slowly and began to walk again,
yet the still whipped him.
I wanted to protect him with my own body.
But, I knew this had to be, so I walked on and wept silently.

Lord, how often have I seen you fall,
and, unlike Mary, have left you there without concern?
How often have I seen people make mistakes and laughed at them?
How often do I find myself getting angry
when someone does things differently than I?
Mary offered you her support through your entire passion.
Help me to do the same for you by the support I give to others.
Lord, have mercy on me.

FOURTH STATION JESUS MEETS HIS GRIEVING MOTHER

“We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have redeemed the
world.”

I had managed to break through the crowd
and was walking side by side with my son.
I called to him through the shouting voices.
He stopped.

Our eyes met, mine full of tears of anguish,
his full of pain and confusion.

I felt helpless;

then his eyes said to me,

“Courage! There is a purpose for this.”

As he stumbled on, I knew he was right.

So I followed and prayed silently.

Lord Jesus,

forgive me the many times our eyes met and I turned mine away.

Forgive me the times things did not go my way
and I let everyone know about it.

Forgive me the times I brooded over little inconveniences

or became discouraged, and did not heed your call to courage!

Yes, Lord,

our eyes have met many times, but fruitlessly.

FIFTH STATION SIMON HELPS JESUS CARRY HIS CROSS

“We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have redeemed the
world.”

I could now see almost complete helplessness
on the face of my son
as he tried to carry his heavy load.
Each step looked as if it would be his last.
I felt his every pain in my heart
and I wanted the whole thing to end.
Then I noticed some commotion near Jesus.
The guards had pulled a protesting man from the crowd.
They forced him to pick up the back of the cross
to help lighten my son's load.
He asked the guards why this had to be.
I knew,
and so followed silently.

Lord Jesus,
I have many times refused to help you.
I have been a selfish person who has often questioned your word.
Don't let me remain like Simon,
but help me to be like your mother, Mary,
who always silently followed and obeyed.

SIXTH STATION VERONICA WIPES THE FACE OF JESUS

“We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have redeemed the
world.”

As I continued close by Jesus,
a woman pushed past the guards, took off her veil
and began to wipe my son’s sweating, bloody face.
The guards immediately pulled her back.
Her face seemed to say,
“Why are you doing this to him?”
I knew,
so I walked on in faith, silently.

Lord, this woman gave you the best she could.
On the other hand,
I have wanted to take more than I give.
So many opportunities arise every day
for me to give to you by giving to others,
but I pass them by.
My Saviour,
never let me ask why again,
but help me to give all I have to you.

SEVENTH STATION JESUS FALLS THE SECOND TIME

“We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have redeemed the
world.”

Again, my son fell,
and again my grief was overwhelming
at the thought that he might die.
I started to move toward him,
but the soldiers prevented me.
He rose and stumbled ahead slowly.
Seeing my son fall, get up again, and continue on,
was bitter anguish to me.
But, since I knew this had to be,
I walked on silently.

Lord, of all people
Mary was your most faithful follower, never stopping in spite of all the pain she felt for you.
I have many times turned away from you by my sins
and have caused others to turn away from you.
I beg you to have mercy on me.

EIGHTH STATION JESUS SPEAKS TO THE WOMEN

“We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have redeemed the
world.”

I was walking a few steps behind Jesus when I saw him stop.

Some women were there crying for him and pitying him. He told them not to shed tears for him.

They had the opportunity to accept him as the messiah; like many others, they rejected him instead.

He told them to shed tears for themselves, tears that would bring their conversion.

They did not see the connection between that and his walk to death.

I did, and as he walked on, I followed silently.

My Saviour,

many times have I acted like these women, always seeing the faults of others and pitying them.

Yet, very rarely have I seen my own sinfulness and asked your pardon.

Lord, you have taught me through these women.

Forgive me, Lord, for my blindness.

NINTH STATION JESUS FALLS THE THIRD TIME

“We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have redeemed the
world.”

This fall of Jesus was agony to me.
Not only had he fallen on the rocky ground again,
but now he was almost at the top of the hill of crucifixion.
The soldiers screamed at him and abused him,
almost dragging him the last few steps.
My heart pounded
as I imagined what they would do to him next.
But, I knew this had to be,
so I climbed the hill silently behind him.

My loving Jesus,
I know that many times
I have offered my hand to help people
but when it became inconvenient or painful to me,
I left them, making excuses for myself.
Help me, Lord,
to be your mother, Mary,
and never take my supporting hand
away from those who need it.

TENTH STATION JESUS IS STRIPPED OF HIS GARMENT

“We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have redeemed the
world.”

With my son finally relieved of the weight of the cross.
I thought he would have a chance to rest.
But the guards immediately started to rip his clothes
off the blood-clotted skin.
The sight of my son in such pain was unbearable.
Yet, since I knew this had to be.
I stood by and cried silently.

Lord,
in my own way I too have stripped you.
I have taken away the good name of another by foolish talk,
and have stripped people of human dignity by my prejudice.
Jesus,
there are so many ways I have offended you through the hurt I have caused others.
Help me to see you in all people.

ELEVENTH STATION JESUS IS NAILED TO THE CROSS

“We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have redeemed the
world.”

As they threw Jesus on the cross,
he willingly allowed himself to be nailed.
As they punctured his hands and his feet,
I felt the pain in my heart.
Then they lifted up the cross.
There he was, my son, whom I love so much,
being scorned as he struggled
for the last few moments of earthly life.
But I knew this had to be,
So I stood by and prayed silently.

Lord,
what pain you endured for me.
And what pain your mother went through,
seeing her only son die for love of me!
Yet, both you and she are ready to forgive me
as soon as I repent of my sin.
Help me, Lord,
to turn away from my sinfulness.

TWELFTH STATION JESUS DIES ON THE CROSS

“We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have redeemed the
world.”

What greater pain is there for a mother
than to see her son die right before her eyes!
I, who had brought this saviour into the world and watched him grow, stood helplessly beneath his
cross
as he lowered his head and died.
His earthly anguish was finished, but mine was greater than ever.
Yet, this had to be and I had to accept it,
so I stood by and I mourned silently.

My Jesus,
have mercy on me
for what my sins have done to you and to others.
I thank you for your great act of love.
You have said
that true love is laying down your life for your friends.
Let me always be your friend.
Teach me to live my life for others,
and not fail you again.

THIRTEENTH STATION JESUS IS TAKEN FROM THE CROSS

“We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have redeemed the
world.”

The crowd had gone; the noise had stopped,
I stood quietly with one of Jesus' friends and looked up at the dead body of our Saviour, my son.
Then two men took the body from the cross and placed it in my arms.
A deep sorrow engulfed my being.
Yet, I also felt deep joy.
Life had ended cruelly for my son,
but it had also brought life to all of us.
I knew this had to be,
and I prayed silently.

Lord,
your passion has ended.
Yet, it still goes on whenever I choose sin over you.
I have done my part in your crucifixion
and now, my Saviour,
I beg your forgiveness with all my heart.
Help me to live a life
worthy of you and your mother.

FOURTEENTH STATION JESUS IS PLACED IN THE TOMB

“We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have redeemed the
world.”

We brought Jesus' body to a tomb
and I arranged it there myself,
silently weeping, silently rejoicing.
I took one more look at my loving son, and then walked out.

They closed the tomb
and before I left, I thought,
I knew this had to be...
it had to be for you!
I would wait in faith silently.

Yes, my Lord,
this had to be
because you loved me, and for no other reason.
All you ask is that I live a good life.
You never said such a life would be easy.
I am willing to leave sin behind
and live for you alone,
in my brothers and sisters.

FIFTEENTH STATION JESUS IS RAISED FROM THE DEAD

“We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have redeemed the
world.”

I could only be more grateful for the sacrifice of my son for us.
Yet, what emptiness I felt trying to live without him whom I loved so!
But, only two days later
that emptiness was filled beyond belief —
he had risen!
Our saviour had opened the doors
to a new life.
That is the way it had to be — because his undying love for you would not stop at anything less.
I could rejoice forever,
but not in silence.

My Saviour,
thank you!
Thank you for such endless love
that helps me to rise
out of my own sinfulness.
I will try again
to live a better life.
Help me to always remember that love.
Mary, mother of our risen Saviour,
teach me to be like you,
and in my love for others,
love him in return.
